

Save money through ACEC Trusts

Life Health Trust

Indiana firms saw an average increase of only 2 percent for the 2011/2012 renewals, and firms in the South Bend are doing even better! An ACEC firm with 11 employees has saved $25,000 by switching to United Healthcare.

"The folks affiliated with ACEC insurance have repeatedly asked if they could quote our health insurance and our professional liability insurance needs," said Kenneth P. Herceg, P.E., L.S., President, Ken Herceg & Associates. "I resisted because I felt, especially in the case of liability insurance, that a long-term relationship was important. I finally gave in last year and allowed ACEC/Gallagher Benefit Services to give us a quote for our healthcare. To my surprise and delight, the new program with United Healthcare is currently saving us almost $25,000 this year."

If your renewal is approaching or you want to get a quote for your health insurance, call John Williams of Gallagher Benefit services at (317) 810-4373.

Business Insurance Trust

The ACEC Business Trustees have always known that the business insurance through The Hartford can save you, in some cases, the cost of ACEC membership. To introduce you to the program, they are offering a Deductible Assistance Program. For ACEC members who have the Business Insurance, the Trust will assist you with the deductible up to $500, to the extent possible with available funds, for a maximum of $1,000 in a calendar year. Please call Kevin Wooley at (800) 338-1391 for a quote.

Retirement Trust

ACEC's long running relationship with Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC has saved many members time and money by administering their customized Retirement Program. Call Nancy Barrette, Managing Director - Investments of Wells Fargo Advisors, at (800) 521-9463.
